

BRAND AMBASSADOR — RÉMY COINTREAU VIETNAM

PHAT TRINH

Championing world-class heritage spirits — with the authentic voice of the trade.

I've spent 10+ years behind the bar and on the road for some of the world's top spirits brands. These days I represent Rémy Cointreau's portfolio in Vietnam — training bartenders, hosting tastings, and helping brands actually connect with the people pouring their drinks.

BACKGROUND & PHILOSOPHY

Whenever I get up to share something, I tell people the same thing: I came up the exact same way you did — service, barback, bartender, then bar operations. The hard parts of this job aren't something I heard about. I lived them.

“Great spirits are just the beginning. My favorite part of the job is still pulling up a stool, pouring a drink, and talking shop with the person behind the bar.”
